CHURCH AND PRESS

To War on Tuberculosis—Both Asked to Aid in Campaign.

The National Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis has planned a tuberculosis Sunday for April the 24th. They are asking that in every church in the United States a sermon or lecture on this important subject be delivered on that day.

The Kentucky Association has its headquarters in Louisville and an application to Miss Harriet E. Anderson, 215 East Walnut Street, Louisville, Ky., will bring literature. Mr. C. L. Adler, president of the Association, earnestly requests that all ministers in the State of Kentucky shall join in this national movement.

Kentucky badly needs the preaching of the gospel of education on this subject. The disease can be eradicated, and eradicated only by cleanliness, healthful living and the knowledge of the means by which it spreads. Kentucky is suffering more from the disease than all but two or three States of the Union. She is ignorant of her condition and, if we are to judge by the recent acts of the Legislature, unwilling to take the necessary steps to better it. Public agitation and education alone can help us. Will the newspapers of Kentucky bring this matter to the attention of every minister in the State?

Bishop Nelson, of Albany, says: "Having labored with some success to point out the danger (of the disease), we are now confident that the cure of the disease depends upon improvement in conditions of personal and social life. Whatever the churches may be able to do along this line will be a double contribution to physical and spiritual betterment, and I should think that all would wish to have a share in such an enterprise."

Heavy, impure blood makes a muddied, pimply complexion, headaches, nausea, indigestion. Thin blood makes you weak, pale, sickly. Burdock Blood Bitters makes the blood rich, red, pure—restores perfect health. Im

Made Rich.

At Dayton, O., Warren G. Dent, a brewery wagon driver, received $41,500 for 70 acres of West Virginia land which he purchased twenty years ago for $117. The discovery of oil by the Standard Oil Company was the reason for the increase in the value of the land.

WITHOUT AN OWNER.

Court Refuses to Dispose of $1,000.

A mandate of the Court of Appeals was filed in the office of the Circuit Clerk at Winchester, Ky., April 5.

During the trial of the case of Mrs. J. B. Marcum against the Hargises, French and Callahan for $100,000 damages for the murder of her husband, important witness for the plaintiff left the State.

It was alleged that the defense was to pay Mose Feltner $1,000 for taking them away. The money was paid to Feix Feltner to be given to Mose Feltner. The $1,000 was placed in the Winchester Bank by Felix.

Mose Feltner later sued Felix Feltner for the money. Judge Benton decided that the whole transaction was illegal and opposed to the public good and decided that the court would not be a party to its enforcement and refused to decide as to whose money it was.

The highest court affirmed his decision and in the meantime the money has remained in the bank. Why not give it to Mrs. Marcum, if the courts cannot otherwise decide?

Every family and especially those who reside in the country should be provided at all times with a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment. There is no telling when it may be wanted in case of an accident or emergency. It is most excellent in all cases of rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by all dealers. Im

Large Democratic Gains.

Reports from forty of the fifty cities of the first class in Oklahoma which held elections April 5 indicate large Democratic gains.

Burley Pool.

At Lexington, Ky., on April 5, the Burley Tobacco Society was reported to have fixed the sale price of the pooled tobacco at $18 per 100 pounds, subject to the ratification of the District Board.

Some statisticians say that the American Company has already purchased 200,000,000 pounds this season and that they will not need this tobacco, but the Burley people believe that they must have the pooled tobacco.

NEW LIBEL LAWS

Enacted at the 1910 Session of the General Assembly of Kentucky.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. That in any civil action for libel, charging the publication of an erroneous statement, alleged to be libelous, it shall be relevant and competent evidence for either party to prove the fact that the plaintiff requested retraction or omitted to request retraction.

The defendant may also allege and give proof that the matter alleged to have been published, and to be libelous, was published without malice, and that the defendant in the next regular issue of the newspaper or publication, after receiving demand in writing or within seven days if no such demand is made to correct and to retract said statement, or in the next regular issue of the newspaper or publication did publish a sufficient correction, retraction, explanation or rectification, as conspicuously and publicly as that in which said libelous statement was published in the same type and in the same place in at least two successive issues of the same periodical publication accompanied by editorials in which the alleged slander is specifically repudiated.

Upon proof of such facts, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to punitive damages; and the defendant shall be liable only to pay actual damages. And upon the publication of such correction, retraction, explanation or rectification, the defendant may plead same in mitigation of damages.

Section 2. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. That Section 74, Title 5, of the Civil Code of Practice, etc., and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto the words:

"Provided, that in actions for libel, the action shall be brought in the county in which the plaintiff resides or in the county in which the newspaper or publication is printed or published," so that said section as amended and enacted shall read as follows: "Every action for an injury to the person of the plaintiff, and every action for an injury to the character of the plaintiff, against a defendant residing in this State, must be brought in the county in which the defendant resides or in which the injury is done: Provided, that in actions for libel, the action shall be brought in the county in which the plaintiff resides or in the county in which the newspaper or publication is printed or published, or in the county in which the transaction, or act, or declaration to which publication relates is stated, or purported to have been done or taken place."

STRONGLY OPPOSED

Will Be Application for Parole of Curt Jett.

From daily reports we get these extracts:

Application will be made to the Prison Commission for a parole for Curtis Jett, serving two life sentences for murder, and a strong petition will be presented urging that he be given a chance to make good. Jett is known in Breathitt as "The Wild Dog of the Mountains." The petition is to be presented by the Rev. C. R. Hudson, pastor of the Christian church in Frankfurt.

Curt Jett has been in prison for more than six years and during the last few years has been a model prisoner. He professed religion and joined the church. He is a close student of the Bible and knows more about it than most Sunday school scholars.

Rev. Hudson told the Secretary of the Prison Commission that he wanted to appear before the board on behalf of Jett. He said he was present when Jett professed faith and he believes that that conversion was genuine and that Jett would lead a straight life if given a chance.

MRS. MARCUS PROTESTS.

From a petition filed by Mrs. Marcus we take this extract:

"I am the widow of James B. Marcus, who was killed by Curt Jett, while standing in the Court-house door in Jackson, and whom Curt Jett confessed to having killed."

"I desire in the name of justice and decency, and honor and in the living memory that I have for my husband, who was taken from his wife and his loving children, four sons and two daughters, to enter a most bitter and serious protest against his parole or pardon, or other clemency.

"The history of this crime is too indelibly written on the memory of the people of Kentucky to need any repetition here, how he in company with his accomplice and fellow criminal, Tom White, stealthily slipped through hallways and corridors of the Court-house to where his husband stood, and without the slightest warning, shot him to death.

"It was less than a year before this that he from the windows of the same Courthouse fired the shots that took away the life of James Cockrell as he stood on the streets, which killing Jett committed having done. I therefore most respectfully enter and file protest against the parole.

"Respectfully submitted,

"MRS. JAMES B. MARCUS."

Indictments Stand.

In the United States Court at Covington Justice Cochran overruled a motion to quash the indictments against twelve tobacco growers of Grant county for violating the interstate commerce laws. The attorneys for the defendants argued that the indictment had not been returned in legal form and that the jury was not drawn from the proper places.

EVER WATCHFUL.

A Little Care Will Save Many Mt. Sterling Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health:

The discharges not excessive or infrequent;

Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment;

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

Mrs. Hazzard Trimble, 4 Jamison St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I am pleased to say that Doan's Kidney Pills helped me greatly. I was in poor health for some time and was unable to stand or do my housework. I had pains in my left side, accompanied by a bearing down feeling through my kidneys. The passages of kidney secretions were irregular and at times so scanty that there was an almost complete retention. I began to notice symptoms of dropsy in my limbs and hands and my condition was becoming worse when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at F. C. Doer's Drug Store. I soon was greatly benefited and I feel like a different woman. Doan's Kidney Pills have convinced me of their effectiveness and consequently I am pleased to give them my endorsement."

"Wets" Lead in Michigan.

Complete returns from the thirty-six counties in Michigan where the local option elections were held April 4, show that 20 counties voted "dry" and 16 "wet." Of the 83 counties in Michigan, 40 will now be "dry" and 43 "wet."

Young Holstein Cow Makes World's Record.

A test has recently been conducted by the State Agricultural Department of a Holstein cow a few days less than three years old and owned by E. L. Munion, of Solsville, Madison County, N. Y. In seven days she averaged more than forty pounds of milk a day and from this was made twenty-five pounds of butter. It is said to be the world's record for a cow of her age. Cornell Agricultural College had a representative present constantly during the test.

STATE'S RIGHTS.

Senator Payne's Amendment a Step Toward Maintaining Home Control.

Senator Payne has secured the adoption of an amendment to the Employers' Liability act by inserting the words "and no cause arising under this act and brought in any State court of competent jurisdiction shall be moved to any court of the United States."

The adoption is of great importance, because it is a step towards restoring to the States the rights and control of matters which have been claimed by the Democrats to be the rights of the State under the Constitution.

By the amendment adopted by the Senate and ratified by the House, the plaintiff has the right to institute his action in a State court, and the right to remove the cause of action to the United States Court in express terms forbidden, thus averting the necessity of traveling many miles with witnesses and attorneys to have cases tried in the Federal Court.

HORSES AND AUTOS.

Horses are a staid institution in this country, and evidently in the great transformation of our day autos have come to stay. There should be no friction or shooting or fight between drivers of autos and other conveyances and horse back riders. Keep cool, ladies and gentlemen, and watch your tempers, horses and guns, and have some consideration for rights, feelings and interests of other folks. No doubt there have been some panicy stricken people who meet autos. No doubt there have been some hasty, self-willed and impatent drivers of autos. All must be taught a lesson. The next generation of horses and folks will have too much sense to get scared at an auto, or try to run over footmen and non-auto travelers. We hope nobody will be killed by autos or because of auto drivers.
Beware!

MT. STERLING COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

Deeply regretting the loss to the educational interests of our city by the death of Prof. Cord, we are pleased to state that his son, Robert L. Cord, will succeed to the management and personal supervision of the institution. Although he is a young man, 22 years old, he comes to the responsible position college trained, strong, resolute and willing. He graduated under the teaching of his father and mother, and knows his father's methods and plans;
then spent four years at Transylvania University, taking the A.
B. degree; highly endorsed he accepted the duties of Principal in our city school, where he was doing faithful service. Satisfactory arrangements have been made whereby all interests in both schools will be cared for.

We predict for him a successful administration aided by his corps of competent teachers and with the co-operation of a sympathetic community.

Bishop Whitehead, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, has prepared a prayer which he asks everybody to use in praying for better conditions in Pittsburgh. It is too late to pray now. The roundup of the guilty and their proper punishment seem the only things left now for that graft-ridden city.—
Lexington Herald.

It's fortunate for the people that now and then something brings them to their senses.

IT WILL BE MONEY WELL SPENT.

However we may approve or disapprove of the action of the Fiscal Court there is no question that the community should feel gratified with regard to the philanthropic interests for which the court was asked to make provision.

The appropriation of $800 for a visiting nurse for tuberculosis and other diseases joined to the $800 appropriated by the City Council insures this most valuable work to the community. The Anti-Tuberculosis Association has urged for several years that something be done for the disease.

The Fiscal Court made an appropriation for Juvenile Court to work. These appropriations to the Juvenile Court to prevent the making of criminals, and to the Anti-Tuberculosis Society to prevent disease will undoubtedly be an economy to the city and county in the long run. It is not only humanity, it is good business for any community to spend money in the right way for the prevention of disease and the prevention of crime. With increased appropriations for our schools and the appropriations above referred to, the time is coming when Fayette county will stand as high in matters of moral improvement as she does for the excellence of her roads and other material assets.—
Lexington Herald.

CIRUIT COURT.

Circuit Court convened Monday morning. Judge Young and Attorney White were ready to represent the Commonwealth.

Judge Young called special attention to the reported prevalent and growing habit of persons old and young who swear falsely before the grand jury when questioned relative to various offenses; such a condition is deplorable. He thought that the indictment and punishment of one such would be very beneficial to public morals.
The grand jury can easily detect such falsifying. To be guilty is to bring humiliation; to be caught at it is also rather worrying to tender consciences.

The Judge thought that the man who recklessly shoots on the highway is the meanest kind of mean man and needs something.

Hold out rumors 'round about that boys had bought liquor and asked a thorough investigation.

The following compose the juries:

GRAND JURORS.

D. J. Burchett, foreman; John Forman, B. F. Mark, H. C. Howell, W. H. Wilkerson, E. L. Payne, Peter Gowndale, M. F. O'Rear,
Simpson Garrett, R. B. Young,

IT WAS A SIGHT.

It's no joke. When the Commonwealth's docket was called there was something doing. It went something like this in the gambling cases: Commonwealth vs. (say) Bruce Trimble (?) Law and facts, $20 and cost. Mr. Jailer, he is in your charge till he pays or reprieves. Bring on another innocent. Commonwealth vs. (say)
Wm. the Kid. Law and the facts, $20, etc. Mr. Jailor, he — — .
Another grin. Commonwealth vs.
(say) Honey Suckle. Same. Same.
Same. Other titters. Commonwealth vs. — — .

Here a lawyer waves a check (already fixed) for $28.50, fine and costs. Some of the initiated, lamps of the fold, hold a conference on the state of the weather or other interesting subject. Finally His Honor, the Judge, suspends operation to give the Trustees of the Jury Fund, Bruce Turner, a chance to enter the payments. He can't keep up, so he calls an assistant to collect a large part of a month's wages for one hour's experience at the gamblers' table.

And thus it goes. The professionals, except in one case, were conspicuous for their absence from the court register, but the kids caught it.

Such is life on the down grade;
the boys who, after awhile, will be trying, if they have not already tried, to convince some of the nice girls that they (the girls) should marry them (the boys) are going all the gait.

Now is it not a shame? We sometimes think that society (?) is at a low ebb, and lament and lament. But after all, what better can be expected when high-toned,

SUDDEN DEATH

Comes to Prof. Wm. H. Cord--His Work As An Educator.

Our community was shocked and grieved when on Friday morning the news flashed over the town that Prof. Wm. H. Cord, president of the Mt. Sterling Collegiate Institute, had died suddenly in the presence of his pupils.

Arbor Day was to be observed in the afternoon, for which plan had been made. The entire school had assembled in the chapel. At 11:20 o'clock he stood before them on the rostrum giving final instruction about the work to be accomplished. He paused and remarked that he was feeling sick.
Without another word he fell forward dead. Who can forget his fine physique, commanding personality and apparently robust health? Physically, intellectually and religiously he was a man among men, only in his prime, with most favorable prospects for increased labor, honor and usefulness.

He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

Prof. Cord was born in Mason county, Ky., November 6, 1864, and died in Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 8, 1910, hence was in his 46th year. He married Miss Edith Ireland, of Owenton, Ky., in June, 1887. They have three children, Robert, aged about 22, principal of the Mt. Sterling Public Graded School; Raymond, in his 9th year, and William, in his 6th.

The funeral service was held at the Christian Church, in this city, on Sunday afternoon. The devotional service was led by the writer,
B. W. Trimble, who briefly reviewed Prof. Cord's educational and religious work for 16 years as principal of the C. W. B. M. school at Hazel Green. Rev. H.
D. Clark followed with a glowing yet deserved tribute to the deceased as a teacher, preacher and honored citizen.

The entire seating and standing capacity of the building was taxed and many thronged the windows.
The following citizens were named as pall-bearers:

land, John G. Winn, T. C. Quisen-berry, H. C. McKee, N. B.
Young.

Floral offerings by his school
the 9th grade of the Public School, Somerset Christian church and friends at Hazel Green and many individuals here and elsewhere attested somewhat of the esteem in which he was held. Center aisles were reserved for the pupils of his school (about 185). They also formed a procession to the cemetery.
During this score of years a larger procession has not followed to Machpelah an honored citizen.

As beautiful flowers covered him over, his pupils passed by,
each dropping a talip plucked from the flower beds at the Institute. Tears dimmed many eyes, and heart sighs told of the loss of a dear friend, a public benefactor, an honored citizen, a christian gentleman.

Under the fostering care of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, Prof. Cord went to Hazel Green the summer of 1890 to establish a mission school, which had for a few years under different management and other teachers had a checkered career. There were eleven pupils on the first morning. He was then less than 26 years of age, but had had about three years' experience in teaching in Owen and Mason counties.
The responsibilities were great,
likewise the opportunities for development, mastery and service.

As a student, teacher and preacher he made good, dependent upon the unswerving loyalty and very generous expenditure of money by the thousands of women of the Christian church through their executive board. Great discoun-tage beset the work by reason of small receipts and the addition of dormitories. For 16 years that combination of worthies (including Mrs.

Cord) continued. Order came from chaos, strength from weakness, hope from discouragement.

Too much can not be said in behalf of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. They are the servants of the Lord; a tower of light and strength.

Under the expanding genius and directing power of Prof. Cord the school was making great strides. Education had been lifted to a higher plane, new tastes created, new ideals begotten, the school facilities, buildings, curriculum, etc., enlarged. Students or graduates from Hazel Green Academy were in demand as teachers. Although Prof. Cord left Hazel Green in the summer of 1906 to locate in our city, and although the Academy has continued to expand into larger and larger spheres of usefulness, yet indissolubly connected with the name and work of Wm. H. Cord.

To be enthroned in the grateful memories and hearts of hundreds of young people, a moulding power in their lives, is a monument more precious and enduring than tablets of bronze and shafts of marble. He laid broad, deep and well the foundation upon which a glorious superstructure was building.

Mr. Sterling Collegiate Institute opened in September 1906, after only two weeks for formation of plans and details with about 70 pupils during the first few weeks. The only available building was antiquated and wholly inadequate. The school continued to grow. Before third year was finished a new up to date building and grounds was declared a necessity.
The fourth year was opened in that attractive frame in a spacious lawn on W. Holt Ave.

The anticipated and longed for was a reality. The enrollment is now 185, with a corps of six teachers.
In addition to school duties he was serving his third year as pastor of the Somerset Christian church, preaching there on every Lord's day, greatly beloved by his congregation.

When success was assured, and fields for greater service as an educator were opening, his career is suddenly closed. His death is a public loss.

For nearly twenty years the writer has known him, frequently visited and talked to his school and seen his transforming power.
Now we extend to his wife and family our sympathy and assurances of co-operation and kindly interest in the maintenance and further development of his institute.

On this (Wednesday) April 13,
all classes at the Mt. Sterling Collegiate Institute will be resumed, and the plans and policies of the late Wm. H. Cord, president, will be carried out under the management and supervision of his son, the undersigned.

CENSUS TAKER

Soon Abroad In The Land. Questions to Be Answered:

For the benefit of those not yet accustomed to the searching questions of the census taker, and for the information of those yet to undergo the ordeal the full list is given below:

First he writes on his big blank the street and number of your house.

Then he asks how many families live there.

Now you must give the name of each person of your family who lives with you on April 15. He enters surname first, then the given name and middle initial. He omits children born since April 15.

Then the questions will come as follows:

Tell the relationship of each person in the family to the head of the family.

Tell their sex.

Color or race.

Age at last birthday.

Whether single, married, widowed or divorced.

Number of years of present marriage if married.

How many children born and how many alive.

Place of your birth.

Your father's birthplace.

Your mother's birthplace.

What year you immigrated to the United States, if foreign born.

Whether you are naturalized or alien.

Whether able to speak English or if not give language spoken.

What's your trade, or profession, or job.

What is the general nature of the industry, business or establishment where you work?

Are you an employer, employee, or working on your own account?

If you are an employee, were you working on April 15?

How many weeks were you out of work in 1909?

Can you read?
Can you write?
Have you attended school any time since September 1, 1909?
Do you own or rent your home?
If you own it, is it free or mortgaged?
Do you live on a farm or in town?

If you live on a farm, is it free or mortgaged?
Then, if you live on a farm what's the number of your farm schedule—that is a census schedule which you should have received before the census man comes.

Are you a survivor of the Union or Confederate army or navy?
Are you blind (both eyes)?

Are you deaf and dumb?
That's all the questions, but here's some rules that you will be expected to observe:

Your home is where you sleep. Domestic servants and others living with their employers should be enumerated with the family.

Persons who will not be enumerated with the family by the census man are: Those visiting temporarily; transient boarders or lodgers who have some other permanent place of abode; persons working in your house but not sleeping there; members of your family who are in jail, asylums, almshouses, homes for aged, reformatories, or any other institution where they may be confined for some time to come.

If you have two occupations you name the one which gives you the best pay.

The purpose of the questions about whether you have been out of work is to find the number of people in the country who want to work and cannot find it.

In the case of women who are doing their own housework without other employment the census man will put down that she has no occupation.

You do not need to fear the census man or hesitate to answer his questions freely. If any question embarrasses you, you should remember that you tell Uncle Sam in confidence. The census man is sworn to secrecy.

NORTH MIDDLETOWN

Dr. J. A. Gilkie has sold his residence and office to Dr. L. R. Henry, of Madison county, and the two have formed a partnership.

On Friday one of the old residences of this section was destroyed by fire. It was the home of Mrs. Mollie Talbot.

She is now 76 years old and had lived there for 50 years.

Her son, John, lived with her, (Mrs. Talbot is the sister of Mrs. Maria Crawford, of Mt. Sterling.) The fire was caused by a defective flue.

Most of the household goods were saved.

INDIANA REPUBLICANS

Name Ticket--Local Option Law
Not Touched.

The Republicans of Indiana, in their convention at Indianapolis, April 5, inaugurated the political campaign of 1910 by the selection of a State ticket, with the exception of Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and adopted a platform that endorses a protective tariff, a tariff commission, conservation of natural resources, the Roosevelt policies and the administration of President Taft.

LITTLE FIGHT FOR OFFICE.

There were few contests for places on the ticket and a number of the candidates were nominated by acclamation. A second ballot was necessary in but two instances—for Superintendent of Public Instruction and Judge of the Supreme Court.

United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge, as temporary chairman, made the principal speech. He denounced the Payne-Aldrich tariff law.

ATTITUDE ON TARIFF.

The attitude of the party on the tariff question is expressed in the platform:

"We believe in a protective tariff, measured by the difference between the cost of production here and abroad. Less than this is unjust to American laborers; more is unjust to American consumers. That difference should be ascertained with the utmost speed and the present law modified accordingly."

LOCAL OPTION LAW OMITTED.

It had been expected that endorsement of the county option law, passed by a Republican Legislature, would provoke a controversy, but the platform contained no mention of the option law.

The convention, called to order at 10 o'clock, adjourned at 6 o'clock. No speeches were made other than those of Beveridge and the permanent chairman.

Following is an abstract of Senator Beveridge's speech:

The Republicans of Indiana are for a protective tariff which covers the difference in the cost of production here and abroad. Less than that is unjust to American laborers; more than that is unjust to American consumers. Injustice is the only fact that protection needs to fear. It was to reduce the Dingley tariff to meet changed conditions and secure justice that we undertook this revision.

Every economic policy, every political system, almost every Government, has been destroyed because of excesses and injustice that crept into it. The way to keep a secure policy, a system or a Government that in itself is good is to administer it with justice and wisdom. The only way to keep a party solid and growing is to keep it right and progressive.

McKinley saw this when he declared in his last speech that in tariff matters "the period of exclusiveness has past."

Senator Morrill, the father of the war tariff of 1864, saw it when he declared "it is the mistake of the friends of a sound tariff to insist on extreme rates proposed during the war if less will raise the necessary revenue."

Garfield saw it when he said: "The wisest thing protectionists can do is to unite on a moderate reduction of duties."

Theodore Roosevelt saw it when he said in 1902: "What we really need in this country is to treat the tariff as a business proposition from the standpoint of the interests of the country as a whole and not from the standpoint of the temporary needs of any political party."

The great masses of Republican voters understand it today when they refuse to permit the great doctrine of protection to be used to excuse and cloak tariff excess. Use a principle to perpetuate a fraud, and the friend of the principle thus misused is more offended than the enemy of the principle itself.

An aching back is instantly relieved by an application of Sloan's Liniment.

This liniment takes the place of massage and is better than sticky plasters. It penetrates without rubbing through the skin and muscular tissue right to the bone, quickens the blood, relieves congestion, and gives permanent as well as temporary relief.

Honest Proof.

Mr. JAMES C. LEE, of 1160 9th St., N.E., Washington, D.C., writes: "Thirty years ago I suffered terribly from a lame back. I had been easily injured my back. I suffered terribly from rheumatism. I had been all around my stomach just as I had been all around my back. Every plaster I could get with no relief. Sloan's Liniment took the pain right out of me. I have never worked so easy in the shop, thank you."

Sloan's Liniment

Mr. J. F. EVANS, of Mt. Airy, Ga., says: "After being afflicted for three years with a lame back, I used Sloan's Liniment and was cured sound and well. I have had no trouble with rheumatism since. My legs have never been from my hip to my knee. Thank you, Sloan's Liniment took the pain and swelling out."

Sloan's Liniment has no equal for rheumatism, Neuralgia, or pain or stiffness in the muscles or joints.

Price, $2.50, $5.00.

AFRICAN SPECIMENS

Collected By Ex-President Roosevelt.

The collection of African specimens made by the Roosevelt party, said Mr. Mann, of Illinois, in presenting to the House a letter from the ex-President making a preliminary report to the Smithsonian Institute, "is undoubtedly the most complete and valuable in the world, and will be of great service to naturalists and scientists."

The letter to Secretary Walcott, of the Smithsonian Institute, was dated Khartoum, Egypt, February 15.

Mr. Roosevelt enumerated the total number of various specimens obtained at 11,397 vertebrates, consisting of 4,897 mammals, 4,000 birds, 2,000 reptiles and batrachians and 500 fishes. In addition is a considerable number of invertebrates. The collection includes several thousand plants and a large number of marine and fresh water shells, crabs, beetles and millipedes.

To the Governments of Great Britain and Belgium, the British officials in East Africa, Uganda and the Sudan and the Belgian officials in the Lado, Mr. Roosevelt says: "we owe our warmest thanks for the generous courtesy shown and the aid freely given."

Great Work at Fifty.

In the letter Walcott has accepted the fact that a man is too old at 40, and the London county council works department decided last year not to engage men above 35. How is it in the intellectual world? Despite all the talk about the decline of man, man arrives at a conclusion which gives an average of 50 for the master work of great men.—T. P.'s Weekly.

Appreciate Action.

Authors at Work.

An amazing confession was made some time ago by the Baroness Von Huttent, the authoress of "Pam," who is appearing as Aunt Imogen in "Pam and the Fairies" at His Majesty's. The baroness does most of her writing in bed, and she sleeps with a stranglehold with the romantic name of Schloss Steinbach, and thinks nothing of working eight or ten hours without a break. "After a really hard day's work like that, I am compelled to unbutton my clothes, for I always succeed in some unaccountable way in covering myself with ink. My appearance on these occasions is a standing joke, and my children have nicknamed me 'Mrs. Jellyfish,' because the baroness was always devoted to me." Sloan's Liniment took the pain right out of me. I have never worked so easy in the shop, thank you."

Wet Time at a Wedding.

In concluding an account of "a quiet wedding" in the Pioneer Press, Mrs. ALICE J. ANDERSON, father of the bride, who never before had shed a tear, found several of them rolling down his sunburned cheeks as he came forward to kiss the bride, remarking that she was the fairest girl he had ever seen. The bride had to gasp to tears, everybody was somewhat excited, and in the slight confusion the writer hereof found himself embracing a lady who stood conveniently behind and presented his wife to his bride. The bride quickly awoke and was forgiven. He apologized again later to his wife, with no very definite return up to this date.—Kansas City Star.

History of "La Grippe."

Grippe first appeared in England in 1781, since when there have been more than one hundred epidemics. It first appeared in the United States in 1827 and went all over the western hemisphere. The last epidemic started in New York in May, 1889, and reached the United States in the middle of December. Its rate of spread is exactly as rapid as travel. Since 1889 there have been grip epidemics in most American cities, very widely scattered. There have been cases of cholera during deadly epidemics of cholera, so there are many cases of bad colds in the head, or "grip," false influenza, when true grip is about—N.Y. Press.

Origin of the Pigtail.

The report that the Chinese department of state affairs contemplates issuing an order directing officials, soldiers and police to give up the queue and to wear their hair short reveals that the queue was introduced into China by the Manchus, who invaded three centuries ago. It is said to have been originally suggested to the Manchus by their sense of gratitude to the horse, that animal having played a great part in the Tartar conquests. That the "pigtail" was a method of establishing a relationship between human beings and horses.—Japan Mail.

Reading.

If you are not a habitual reader, begin to form the habit now. Good reading is a great life improvement. It will enlarge your mental capacity wonderfully. It will make you a full man, an interesting man; it will elevate your life standards. Your ideals will be higher; your views of life and its opportunities will widen; your life immeasurably. You will grow fuller and nobler; you will think more of yourself, and others will think more of you.—Success.

Gums with Double Tubes.

Hexeneeth all kinds of gums of six inches caliper or over, except mortars, will be provided with double tubes, so that the inner tube give way, the damage will not extend to the outer tube and the enveloping jacket will remain intact. This will permit the restoration at small cost of tubes whose tubes give way and will facilitate the rehabilitation of guns whose accuracy has been lost through erosion and wear of bore.

Majesty is Wise.

To support insurance against a rebellion minority on the theory that they are better than the most people is to deny the teachings of the centuries. The only safe, sound, and sane rule is to give everybody a chance to inform himself and to express himself, and to abide by the common sense and the common judgment of the majority.—Editorial Advertiser.

Year's Addition to World's Gold.

South Africa contributed the greatest sum to the world's gold in 1909, in the last year, its share being little over $150,000,000, the United States slightly less than $100,000,000, Australia about $80,000,000, Russia about $25,000,000 and Mexico a little less than $20,000,000.

The Real Reason.

"De man dat compaats dat de wortel is agin hem," said Uncle Eben, "usually expresses such a bad opinion of de wortel dat he gait no right to look fo' its friendship."

The Leading Cereals.

To sum up in percentage the six leading cereals show a yield of 7.6 per cent greater than last year, and only 4 per cent below the sum of record years in each.

METHODIST BISHOP

Attacks Ireland and Challenges Him to Open Debate.

Regarding the Roosevelt-Vatican incident and the Methodist propaganda in Rome, the Pioneer Press requested a statement from Bishop Robert McIntyre, of the Southern Minnesota Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Bishop McIntyre said:

"A telegram from my home city shows that Archbishop Ireland has again attacked the Methodist Episcopal Church and dragged it into the Roosevelt episode in Rome, when it had no part or share in the matter.

"He calls my people vile, dishonest and calumnious. I bore the Fairbanks slander from him without reply, but my patience is now exhausted. I hereby brand John Ireland, double-tongued falsifier of God's people, a cowardly accuser of men better than himself, who are offering Italians the free grace of God without any terms of priestly monopoly.

"I also challenge him to debate in the open forum. I have great Christian love for the Roman Catholic people, but the papal machine has a blood red record that cannot be excused. She herself has been a school teacher, but found the work uncongenial, so became the agent for an insurance company, with most of her work in the colleges of Mount Wesleyan, Mount Holyoke and Philadelphia Record.

To Stop Nail Biting.

Nail biting is a very common habit among children and is often the result of an extremely nervous temperament. It is a good plan to take such a child to a doctor, who will probably give him a good tonic to brace up the nervous system. The doctor will have pointed out to him how ugly his nails and fingers are getting. Show him how to keep his nails clean and well trimmed and try and induce him to take a walk in the sun. A good plan is to interest him in a good work of some kind that will keep both his hands and brain employed; if this is done the chances are that very soon the habit will disappear.

Telephones in Mines.

Although the use of telephones in mines is not recent, the advantages are, perhaps, hardly really appreciated until they have once been tried. Probably at no time in the history of mining has there been a greater use of the telephone in mines than in the case of the Cherry coal mine disaster. How many lives could have been saved had the mine been fully equipped with telephones in a timely manner, but it seems that the operator had opportunity but he did not have greater had opportunity but he did not afford for communication between the rescuers and the entombed men.—Philadelphia Record.

New Business for Women.

Miss Edith Blashfield Lewis is a New York woman who has originated and now directs the only insurance department in the world run exclusively for women. There is a splendid field for women in this work, she says, as it is comparatively easy to work up from the start. The woman is the best agent for women, she says. She herself had been a school teacher, but found the work uncongenial, so became the agent for an insurance company, with most of her work in the colleges of Mount Wesleyan, Mount Holyoke and Philadelphia Record.

Farms of the United States, with their buildings, implements, and live stock, are to-day worth $25,000,000,000.

This is the largest increase in agricultural values ever before known in the history of the world in any country.

The farm products of the year just closed was worth almost four times as much as the product of 1889.

Practical Economy.

If you would save business, never go to a more than you earn. No matter how small your earnings, you should master this art. I use the word "art" advisedly, as so many young men appear to fritter away without so much as a thought, all their earnings.—Marshall Field.

Not Like a Man.

"The female codfish," remarked the boarder who had been gleaned statistics from between the covers of a patent medicine almanac, "lays more than a dozen eggs at a time. Now, what do you think of that?" "I think," retorted the cheerful idiot, "that it's a mighty lucky thing for the codfish that she doesn't have to cackle over every egg."

Idiot's Actor's Wardrobe.

Tennyson Fane, one of the many stage folk living at the house on "Grove street" burned recently, was the heaviest loser of the actors stopping there. He lost a nightshirt and a red bandana handkerchief, and the leg of one of his trousers was water-soaked. He will take immediate steps to replenish his wardrobe.—Idaho Statesman.

A Child's Comment.

Even in the most文明的 cities, it is unusual at the backwoods of New York. A bright youngster of five, crossing over from New Jersey and seeing the West street transportation relief for the first time, jerked her father's coat-tails sharply off, exclaiming: "Oh, papa, see the tray cars being pulled by horses!"—N. Y. Press.

Child's Burglar Protector.

"Never hear of a burglar breaking into a Chinese laundry, do you?" inquired the gentleman with a Sing Sing record. "I should think not. The laundrymen have no sanctum sanctorum in the house, but a crook has a lot of respect for hot irons. I'd rather be shot with a pistol, chased by a bulldog and bitten with balesticks than be a target for a hot iron. It is the Chinaman's hardest iron. It is also a cold one. A cold iron is bad enough, but a hot one is fierce. It not only stuns, it burns and burns deep. Most Chinks know that crooks are afraid of their hot irons, and I have seen wise old laundrymen had lots of fun in the house to keep the iron on the fire all night. If case anything should turn up."

What the Farmer Works For.

"Hello, Mr. Farmerman, what are you doing?" "Digging potatoes." "What are you going to do with them?" "I'm going to make four piles." "What for?" "The big pile of fine potatoes you see over there I give to the landlord as rent for his permission to allow me to live on earth; next to the biggest pile I give to the manse as payment for the use of the implements to work with; the third pile I give in taxes for the privilege of living in the country." "And that pile of little ones, do you eat them?" "No, I feed them to the hogs to fatten the hogs to sell to the people on the railroads for hauling the potatoes to the owners. This is a great country, though."—Southern Mercury.

Telephone Poles from Russia.

The telephone poles which needs of the Russian portuguese country which had enough grain to satisfy its own consumers was Egypt, rich beyond the record of any other soil this side of Paradise. But his highness of Poland, who was the transmittal power, was still the transmittal power, and the demand of the expanding empire—demands averaging 50,000 poles per annum. Sweden was duly laid under contribution, and now Russia has become a valuable source of supply.

It was in 1901 that the present controller of stores, who visited Russia for the purpose. The poles come not only from the forests that feed the Baltic ports, but from those in the White sea hinterland.

Best Training.

Society has this good at least; that it lessens our conceit, by teaching us our insignificance, and making us acquainted with our failings. If you are a young person who has not had up to this, sir or madam, there is nothing more wholesome for you than to acknowledge and associate with your superiors. If I could, I would not have my son Thomas first Greek and Latin prize boy, first in his class, and the best boy in his school, but for his body's welfare that he should have a good place, not the first—a fair set of competitors round about him, and a good thrashing now and then, with a hearty scold afterwards of the hand which administered the beating.—W. M. Thackeray.

A Clergyman in Racing.

It is wisdom that a clergyman has official connection with horse racing, but Dr. Newell, who has been in the service of the church in Paris for many years the only Englishman on the board under the Societe des Steeplechases de France for adjudicating upon any question that might arise connected with the riders, drivers, jockeys, etc., finds that the date of his departure from Paris to the date of his return to England, he regularly received tickets for the reserved inclosure.

Material for Flying Machines.

A novel material for flying machines has been invented, a form of impregnated paper, and is claimed as the German invention. Dr. Wagner and Herr von Radlinger, to be exceptionally light and strong. It is made of paper, raw silk and other fabrics bound up in a single sheet. The material is stated to be inexpensive, proof against fire and damp, and is expected to prove serviceable for a variety of purposes. A test of it was being made in airship now being built at Stein.

New German Horse-shoe.

A new German horse-shoe, designed to prevent slipping on asphalt and wood-block pavements, has a counter-sunk groove, in which is inserted a piece of hemp rope. The rope can be easily withdrawn and when it comes into contact with the slippery surface, the horse secures a very sure footing. Consul Gen. R. P. Skinner reports that the shoe is making considerable headway in Hamburg.

Magnificent Dining-Room.

Mr. and Mrs. Marston J. Perry of Newport and Providence, having an immense dining-room, copied from a castle in England, added to their estate, Bleak House, on Ocean drive. The room measures 24x40 feet, and across the sea. From the table each hundred guests can be seated at the table.

Megaphone Assists Bugle.

The megaphone has been used at several military schools to increase the power of amplifying the volume of the bugle, where it is desired that the calls shall be heard at a distance greater than the sound will carry under ordinary circumstances. The notes of the horn may be distinguished even at such a distance as almost incredible results in this manner.

Canada to Have Prominent Place.

Canada will be largely represented in the international hunting exhibition to be held this year in Vienna.

Where Bacon Lived.

Fulwood's Rent, the little Hobson court leading into Gray's Inn Gardens, will be largely rebuilt, formerly possessed the privilege of "sanctuary," and hence was a noted refuge for turbulent dealers and still more unpleasant characters. Yet this dingy "dive" can boast of many glorious memories. Francis Bacon lived here in Fulwood's House and studied his furniture in a huge room he had

Where Learning Is Appreciated.

It is not easy for a southerner, and particularly for a Londoner, to realize the position held by the university magnates of a Scottish city. Ask any man in the Strand who has been principal of a university of London. The first hundred men would not know that such a dignity existed. In higher circles the ignorance would be almost as complete. But to find a parallel to the position of a Scotch university, one would have to go to the great cities of America where the "colleges" and university presidents count far more than the mayors and the state representatives in congress. In Scotland, as in America, they know where the power lies, and they pay fitting honor to its leaders.—London T. P. Weekly.

Bridesmaids.

Bridesmaids are used to brides' receptions, but old maid brides have something borrowed, something blue. For where bridesmaids are at all old it makes them blue to see another girl married, and thus they can be made to serve a double purpose.

At one time, however, it was said, a bride in blue, and she was not much to like it. "Brice armed is he who hath his quarrel just." It is true in theory, but not in business. If a girl means business, in other words, it makes very little difference how many bridesmaids are at a wedding. Bridesmaids are not a distinct species. Except that they wear bigger hats, they are much like other girls.—Puck.

Masses Must Be Fed.

From the days of Pharaoh, the only well populated country which had enough grain to satisfy its own consumers was Egypt, rich beyond the record of any other soil this side of Paradise. But his highness of Poland, who was the transmittal power, was still the transmittal power, and the importance of corn in all times. Feed your people, king or demagogue, else they will overthrow you. For the masses from furthest antiquity to most recent days, there have never been any torch of dissatisfaction, rebellion and anarchy like a shortage of bread.

Value of Lives and Lives.

Most things in this world are comparative. The fact that a jury in England awards £100,000 to a husband's affections at £75,000 was estimated by a few days after a Jury in Bridgwater, a few days after a Jury in Bridgwater, estimated the loss of a 14-year-old boy's life at $300 shows how differently juries look at things. The absence of a jury in the case of a man whose wife had a large sum of money, and by which which much damage was done, of course, to a large extent uncertain, but that the "dove" was some sort of machine that was capable of "spring" is unquestioned and beyond doubt it is the earliest record of such machine that we have.

Growth of African City.

Up to two years ago the streets of the city of Laurence Marques, the capital of Portuguese East Africa, were mere "rivers of sand," and transportation seemed as far as possible as aerial navigation. The white man was hauled laboriously through the sand in rickshaws and ladies went shopping in hammocks known as "mechilas." During the last decade, however, when the railroads have taken place, so that today Laurence Marques has 40 miles of macadam streets, with promise of more to follow.

Fireproof Helmet for Firemen.

Firemen frequently find it necessary to protect themselves from falling masonry to protect them from the intense heat of the conflagration which they are fighting. Borrowing from this idea, an inventor has devised a helmet formed with a spray nozzle which will produce a small hose which will spray water upon the nozzle in all directions, causing a miniature cascade around the body of the fireman, enabling him to attack at close quarters free that would be unbearable under ordinary conditions.

Monarch Changing Wives.

Despotism, like all forms of despotism, rules hard, subjects of whom, however, find opportunity for distraction. His majesty has divorced one of four legitimate wives allowed by koran law, and is about to espouse the daughter of a late ruler. It is rumored that two other royal daughters are awaiting him and that the places of these discarded wives will be taken by the daughters of royal subjects.

Longevity of Birds.

The duchess of Bedford is an eminent bird collector. In addition to her collection of birds, she gives some remarkable instances of longevity among birds in her own collection. A barbary dove which has been in the duchess' possession for fifteen years was left behind by an old woman who also died in it for fifteen years and always said it was an old bird when it was given to her.

Earth's Age.

A new estimate of the earth's age has recently been given by William Morris Davis, Harvard. The estimate is 100,000,000 years, based on an examination of the cliffs of Arizona and Utah, where the time taken to deposit the strata can be easily computed.

Health in Ancient Times.

William Jacob in his "History of the Precious Metals," estimates from the accounts given by the Roman writers that in the reign of Augustus, the first of the emperors, when Rome was at the height of its power, the amount of health in the Roman empire

Curious.

"Daughter, where did you ever get the idea that a photographer's camera is hard on a person's clothes?"

"I never had such an idea, papa. The ideal!"

"Then how is it that you always wear as few clothes as the law allows when you have your picture taken?"

Rat Skins in Demand.

The use of rat skins in various industries has created a demand in London for the production of radium at $100,000 a year. They are used among other things for bookbinding, photographic frames, purses and for the thumbs of ladies' gloves.

Cause of "Keel Water."
The track of smooth water, or "Keel water," stretching in the wake of a moving vessel is often noticed, but little understood. The effect is not due to the influence of oil on surface tension, though the stilling of the waves may be similar. Prof. Aschorn, a German investigator, has made some experiments with bodies moving on the water, and these show that the gyration of the water around the body left behind each side of the vessel smooth out the smaller waves and give the calm, oil-appearing track that is so familiar. The larger and swifter the ship the longer and broader the smooth wake.

Fresh Air for Children.
"There is no cause at all," says an eminent physician, "to fear the action of the air and sunlight upon a child and too great haste cannot be made to expose it to their influence, which is entirely beneficial to its development and health."

"A child a few weeks old, if suitably dressed, may be taken out of doors for a little while each day and the child will be strengthened as its strength increases. The habit of doing exercise in the open air will lay the foundation for a good constitution and the liability of taking cold will be greatly lessened."

Under the Surface.
There is a sentimental side hidden away down deep in many men, which only rarely is apparent on the surface. Kipling's imperturbable, inscrutable magnate, with his hard face that was like an iron mask to his competitors, could be shown to have a flag in the wind by his emotions when his son died, as he believed, taken from him forever. There is not one of us who has not some hidden spring which, when touched, can shatter in an eyewinkling the proud edifice of our laborious pretense of cold indifference that we show to the world most of the time.

Wars of the United States.
The 13 wars in which the United States has engaged are as follows:
1. War of the Revolution, 1775-1783.
2. Indian war in Ohio territory, 1790.
3. War with the Barbary states, 1803-1804.
4. Tecumseh Indian war, 1811.
5. War with Great Britain, three years, 1812-1815.
6. Alamo, 1836.
7. Mexican war, 1846.
8. Black Hawk war, 1832.
9. Second Seminole war, 1845-10.
10. Mexican war, two years, 1846-1848.
11. Mormon war, 1856.
12. Civil war, four years, 1861-1865.
13. Spanish war, April 21 to July 26, 1898.

Aged Deans.
Our cathedrals have possessed many deans who have reached an extreme and, in most cases, a vigorous old age, says London Tit-Bits. St. Paul's has a nonagenarian; York, Durham, Exeter, and Winchester have octogenarians; while Canterbury, Lichfield, Gloucester, Ripon, Salisbury, Carlisle, Wells, Hereford, Bristol, Gloucester, Rochester, and Windsor have septuagenarians. Thus 17 of our deans are upwards of 70 years of age, and the recently-deceased deans of Lichfield, Worcester, and Norwich would have increased the number to 26.

We of a Large Family.
"I belong to a family of 16," said the southern woman. "Three children I have lost, but the other 13 by his last, I am one of the last survivors. I don't know what I'm going to tell you. We've been scattered to the four winds for years, and the other day I got a letter from a sister in Louisville, Ky., telling me that my brother in Chicago had been very ill. When I wrote to him, he wrote me, 'Now, how can I? You must think it queer, but I haven't the slightest idea what my Chicago sister's married name is.'"

Refrigerating Plants on Ships.
During the season of navigation of 1908 there were 46 steamers fitted with mechanical refrigerating plants sailing from the port of Montreal, with a combined cold storage space of 1,165,556 cubic feet, and, counting the ships now under construction, these steamers in the aggregate render available a total cold storage space of 4,907,195 cubic feet. In addition, 19 steamers with cooled-air accommodation of 904,790 cubic feet were in commission.

Awakening of the East.
After centuries the near east is in the world's race for growth and progress. Port Said, 50 years ago a small Arab camp, now has a population of 50,000. From one man in 1830, 100,000 more in 1900, Mesopotamia did not exist when Ibrahim Pasha anchored his fleet where it now stands; has 22,000; Beirut has multiplied 6,000 inhabitants into 150,000; Gaza increased from 2,000 in 1840, with small growth till 1887, to 45,000 in 1907.

Breaking Wind Force.
The effect of buildings in lessening wind force is known by Berlin records. In 1884 an anemometer was placed on a tower in the open country at a height of about 105 feet, and in 1908 another in the middle of buildings about 75 feet high. The mean velocity of the wind, as shown by the instrument, was reduced from about 18 feet per second in the five-year period of 1884-88 to 12 feet in 1899-1908.

Slightly Personal.
Mr. Yipsey (at the top of his voice) — "I'd like to say a word to say a few words parenthetically."
Mrs. Yipsey (in a shrill falsetto): "A man as bow-legged as you are couldn't talk in any other way than parenthetically."

Payne Law Turns Tide--Tariff Deficit is Reduced.

For the first time in its history The Payne tariff bill has turned the tide and gave us a surplus instead of a deficit.

Chairman Payne, of the House Ways and Means Committee, and his lieutenants, Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, and Bouteil, of Illinois, spoke in unison and enthusiastically of the success of the new law.

"The surplus of receipts over expenditures of the close of business," said Bouteil, "was $122,452. Subtracting from this sum the $100,000 corporation tax, in litigation, we have a net surplus of $22,000 which is absolutely gilt-edged."

"Considering that the Payne law did not go into effect until August 5, 1909, we consider it has made a remarkable showing."

West Postoffice Clock.

Senator W. O. Bradley is making an earnest effort to have a big clock placed in the tower of the Customhouse in Louisville, during the work of remodeling the building, which will soon begin, and the advices from Washington indicate that he will succeed in his efforts.

According to the bids on the proposed annex, there will be about $12,000 of the $60,000 appropriation left over, and the expense of changing the tower and putting in the clock can be paid for out of this unexpended balance.

It Saves You Money.

The special half price sale of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by W. S. Lloyd means the saving of a few dollars on every family's yearly bill for medicines.

Each 50 cent bottle (Mr. W. S. Lloyd sells it for 25c) contains sixty doses of a medicine that is pleasant to take and which can be depended upon to cure the worst case of constipation, dyspepsia or liver trouble. Mr. W. S. Lloyd has so much faith in the superior merit of this medicine that he says: "If Dr. Howard's specific does not cure you, come back to my store and I will return your money."

This remedy is not an ordinary medicine. It is the favorite for mule of a well-known physician, and has the endorsement of hundreds of physicians of eminence in their profession, who prescribe it, in all cases of constipation, dyspepsia or liver trouble, knowing from experience that it will make a complete and lasting cure.

Convicted Letter-Carrier.

In the United States Court at Covington last week James Price, a Newport letter-carrier, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., charged with stealing money from letters. His wife and child and aged mother were in court and their cries resounded through the room.

BOYS AND GIRLS

Given Good Advice by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie.

A Pittsburg dispatch last week says:

"Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Andrew Carnegie has much sympathy for the cause of woman suffrage.

"Pick for your wife the girl who takes care of her mother, the girl who is useful in the household, and does not make the most show in the ballroom," counseled the Laird of Skibo to the young men at his technical schools. "The highest work for woman is to help and encourage man. The Margaret Morrison schools do more good than all the fight for woman's rights," said Mrs. Carnegie in addressing the girls' department of the technical schools.

The steel master also gave the boys this epigrammatic counsel: "Woman raises man to the highest standard.

"My mother and my wife made me all I am.

"All depends upon the proper mating of man and woman.

"I am with you in your own work, for I had to make my own living.

"The ambition to become a millionaire is low.

"To be of service to your fellowman is the greatest ideal.

"Honest parentage is the most valued heritage.

"Don't let money be your God. It is good to develop the body as well as the mind."

Mountain Man Paroled.

"Largely because the testimony showed that he should have been acquitted on his trial, Clay Lawson was granted a parole by the Prison Commission on Thursday.

Lawson was convicted of the killing of W. P. Lawson, a cousin, and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. He has been in prison about six months. He was sentenced to the penitentiary from Wolfe county.

Struck With Hatchet.

In a difficulty at the depot of the Mountain Central Railroad in Campton, Ky., between Robert McNabb, engineer on the train, and Gardner Cockeham, a carpenter, of that place, over loading a car of ties. Cockeham was hit on the head with a hatchet and severely wounded. McNabb was arrested by Sheriff Salley on the charge of striking with a deadly weapon.

Respite For Condemned Man.

On application of three of the judges of the Court of Appeals Gov. Willson has granted a respite to Floyd Frazier until May 19, and unless he changes his mind in the meantime Frazier will be hanged in Whitesburg, Letcher county, on that day.

Lincoln's Spring "Goes Dry."

Local interest in the election resulted in the vote at the suburban town of Haweck, which has been the source of liquor supply for Lincoln, Neb., since the city abolished saloons a year ago. Haweck went "dry" by a majority of 84 after a hard fight.

Why This?--Japanese Observations of Forts.

There is cabled from Manila news that two Japanese were caught in the act of consummating a deal for photographs of the fortifications now in course of construction upon the island of Corregidor.

Possibly the Japanese were merely travelers. The arrest of Americans for similar offenses has often occurred where there was no intention upon the part of the offenders to make any improper use of pictures of fortifications in foreign countries. Yet the persistent reports from Manila that Japanese are fond of poking about in the island to ascertain facts and report to the Imperial Government indicate that there is possibly a little fire where there is a good deal of smoke.

License Revoked.

Three cases of violation of the Sunday closing laws were heard by the License Board in the Police Court at Louisville on April 6.

One license was revoked, one case was taken under submission and the board gave the third defentant time to sell out his stock and go out of business.

BRONCHIAL TUBES

ALL STUFFED UP.

"While a resident of Washington, D. C., I suffered continually and intensely with bronchial trouble that was simply terrible to endure. I would have spells that I could hardly breathe, I would choke up, fill up in my throat and bronchial tubes, and the doctoring that I did and the remedies used were of no benefit to me whatever. I heard about Booth's Hyomei being so beneficial in catarrhal and bronchial affections and procured an outfit. I received relief from the first by its use. I continued with it and received a cure. It is about two years since I have suffered at all from my former trouble."--Mrs. R. L. Pannell, 404 N. Augusta St., Staunton, Va., March 26, 1909.

Hyomei is guaranteed by W. S. Lloyd to cure catarrhal, croup, bronchitis, coughs, colds and sore throat or money back.

A complete Hyomei (pronounce High-o-me) outfit costs $1.00 at druggists everywhere. This includes a hard rubber pocket inhaler and bottle of Hyomei; extra bottles Hyomei cost 50c. Free sample bottle and booklet from Booth's Hyomei Company, Buffalo, N. Y. 38-8-40.

MI-O-NA Cures Indigestion

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY

In Seventh Congressional District

Called for June 25.

At Frankfort on April 5th the Democratic Congressional Committee of the Seventh district called a primary for June 25.

The rollcall showed that every member was present, nine in all.

L. T. Doty, of Owen, offered a resolution embodying a call for a primary. W. O. Davis offered an amendment providing that if there are two candidates the election officers shall be divided in each precinct between the candidates, each to have a majority of the judges in every alternate precinct, the one to have the majority in the first precinct selected in each county, to be selected by lot. This amendment was unanimously adopted.

W. P. Kimball offered an amendment specifically providing in the minutes details that no voter whose certificate of registration had been bought or sold or held in possession or in escrow by another shall have the right to vote in the primary. He said the amendment was specifically intended to apply to Lexington. This amendment was also unanimously adopted.

The call also provides that the expense shall be $3,000 and that each candidate shall put up that sum by June 10, and if there is more than one candidate, each one's pro rata part will be returned to him.

Senator Claude Thomas and Congressman Cantrell were both present at the meeting, but neither made a speech.

HASBEEN OR "WAS-ER"

Ladies Lament Change of Style in Hair Dressing.

We clip from Daisy Fitzhugh's letter from Washington to the Courier-Journal the following:

"As definite as Hector and as dead and deceased as our mortuary friend the doornail--why is a doornail any dearer than anything else?" is that late lamented fashionable convolution of the coiffure called the "swirl." The swirl is a hasbeen, or a "was-er," my ladies; also the turban arrangement and all sister architecture of the treasures. Ain't it scandalous after all that good hard money for swirl braids and huge tortoise shell hairpins and things only a few brief moments ago!

"Of course, there were always many of the most swollen or swells and the most ultra of ultra-martines who always gave the swirl a wide berth anyhow. Mrs. Longworth never would touch a swirl even with a ten-foot pole, if she had one. Mrs. Depew has always scorned any but a strictly Marie Antoinette architecture of her ample silver locks. Miss Katherine Elkins, the beauty of the nut brown braids, who is heir to as many millions almost as she has hairs upon her patrician-looking head--not that her locks are scanty either--wouldn't have been caught dead with the inevitable swirl, even at the height of its glory. Also Mrs. Elkins and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Lee, also the rich young cousin, Miss Katherine Brown, who seems a steady boarder at the Elkins palace, also a lot more of the 'bugs.'

"But when it comes to you and me and Mrs. Taft, Beatrice, and a few other of the more flutterous social butterflies, we've been twisting our cranium around with two skimpy plait with religious inviolability."

"We're in Star's Atmosphere. Observations of the spectrum of Alpha Scopri, made at the Cape of Good Hope, have shown a puzzling line that an English astronomer has attributed to tin. If this proves to be correct, it is the first discovery of the ever made in the atmosphere of a star."

The Real Thing.
"I guess I'll take a hand in the power games, bussed the gambler's wife, and began to play with a flourish of that homely but useful kitchen article in her muscular hand.

HERE IS THE PROOF

That the best body-building and strengthening tonic for

Delicate Children

is

Vinol

"My 9 year old daughter was weak, pale, and had no appetite. I gave her Vinol and she began to gain weight rapidly. She gained rapidly in weight, color, and strength. Mrs. H. GILMORE, Durango, Colo.

"My two children, who were puny and ailing, rapidly gained flesh and strength when given Vinol. A simple and proven Vinol supplement did tonic for delicate children. Mrs. C. ALLEN, New Bedford, Mass.

Vinol builds up healthy flesh and makes thin little limbs round and plump. Children love to take it.

We return people's money without question if Vinol does not accomplish all we claim for it. Try it, please.

Simple Inscription on Cleveland Monument.

With no mention in the inscription of the fact that he was at one time President of the United States, but reading merely "Grover Cleveland, born Caldwell, N. J., March 18, 1837, died Princeton, N. J., June 24, 1908," a monument to the memory of former President Grover Cleveland has been completed at his grave in the Princeton cemetery. Beside it at the same time was placed a marble slab to mark the grave of Ruth Cleveland, his daughter. It, too, bears a simple inscription.

Negro Soldiers Guilty.

The military court of inquiry, which has been investigating the shooting up of Brownsville, Tex., August 13, 1906, finds that the evidence clearly sustains the charge that the shooting was done by soldiers of the Twenty-Fifth Infantry, colored.

The court of opinion that if the officers of the regiment had performed their duties immediately prior to the shooting, the affray could not have occurred and immediately after the shooting, some of the guilty men would have been discovered. Fourteen men are declared to be eligible for re-enlistment.

According to the act creating the Board of Inquiry, the findings are final and cannot be reviewed by anyone.

The socialists federation of trades unions, comprising 300,000 brick layers, carpenters, masons, builders and laborers, at a meeting in Berlin, Germany, unanimously rejected the proposed wages tariff which the builders' union had drawn up.

Deal Costs Him a Million.

James A. Patten, king of the wheat pit, lost a fortune in the cotton market April 5. His losses will be $500,000 and may reach $1,500,000.

News that a shipment of 15,000 bales of cotton from Liverpool to New York was made caused a flurry in the Patten crowd.
